

COMMERCIAL AND RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY OVERVIEW IN A COVID-19 ENVIRONMENT

Starts: 6 Oct 2020 3:00 pm

Australia

There is a lot of discussion surrounding how the new Covid-19 environment the world finds itself in will impact the commercial and residential property markets in Australia in the short and long term. This presentation will look at the short and long term changes in commercial and residential property and how the work-from-home environment will impact each of these property markets, with particular focus on office, residential and retail.

LAUREN RYAN

BDM, Thinktank

Lauren Ryan is the BDM-Investments for Thinktank Commercial Finance. Lauren joined Thinktank in March 2018 to create brand awareness amongst the investment market and grow the funds under management in the Income and High Yield Trust. Prior to Thinktank, Lauren managed investors' funds with consumer lending SocietyOne. Lauren is passionate about helping investors achieve their income goals with a fund manager they can trust. Lauren is a property investor herself and has invested in mortgage funds in the past as she believes it is very important to practice what you preach and have a real-life understanding of the same highs and lows of the investors' funds she manages. Lauren lives on the Eastern Suburbs in Sydney and when she isn't working she is chasing waves and cheering on the Beasties at Woolhara Oval or the Sydney Roosters at the SCG.
